

Davis House
Goliad, Texas.

HABS No. Tex-385

HABS
TEX
88-GOLI
3-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Texas-3

Historic American Buildings Survey
Bartlett Cocke, District Officer
615 Maverick Bldg., San Antonio, Texas.

HABS
TEX.
88-GOLI
3-

DAVIS HOUSE
Goliad, Goliad County, Texas.

Present Owner: Mrs. Katie Waper and Mrs. Roy Tholan, heirs of the Davis Estate, Goliad, Texas.

Date of Erection: 1855

Architect: Unknown

Builder: John S. McCampbell

Present Condition: Very good (Rebuilt in 1903)

Number of Stories: Two

Materials of Construction: Rock and plaster, shingle roof.

Other Existing Records: None

Additional Data:

This house was originally one and a half stories, but was destroyed by cyclone in 1903, then rebuilt to two full stories. The walls are about 20 inches thick. It has an excellent front door and window treatment.

On the first floor there are six rooms with hallway; four rooms and hall upstairs. The house is classical in design, hipped roof and is in good condition.

Author: Bartlett Cocks
Bartlett Cocks, Dist. Officer

Date: April 10, 1937

W 8/27/37